

Project Engineer

Job Duties & Responsibilities:

- Supervise and monitor daily site activities to ensure work is carried out according to project specifications, drawings, and schedules.
- Coordinate with project managers, contractors, subcontractors, consultants, and suppliers.
- Technical and site support to project sales team
- Liaison with internal design & engineering department and in-house / external production related matters
- Ensure compliance with health, safety, and environmental (HSE) regulations at the site.
- Check technical designs and drawings to ensure accuracy and compliance with standards.
- Prepare and maintain site reports, progress updates, and documentation.
- Conduct site inspections and resolve any technical issues or design conflicts.
- Manage site resources including manpower, materials, and equipment.
- Ensure quality control of workmanship and materials used.
- Liaise with clients, consultants, and authorities when required.
- Assist in cost control, variation claims, and project billing matters

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree / Diploma in Civil Engineering, Construction Management, or related field.
- Proven experience as a Site Engineer or similar role in construction projects, roofing or architectural products.
- Strong knowledge of construction methods, materials, and regulations.
- Ability to interpret technical drawings and specifications.
- Good project management, problem-solving, and communication skills.
- Proficiency in MS Office, AutoCAD, or other construction-related software.
- Willingness to work on-site and travel as required.